Failed to Come to Terms With Club Owner in Their Conference Held on Tuesday.

HAS A CHANCE TO STAY.

The Player Will Not Leave the City for Some Days and May Yet Sign With St. Louis.

Player Burkett and Club Owner Robiso had a long talk on Tuesday afternoon about the question of salary for next season. They did not reach any agreement. It is said that there is not more than $200 between them and that both are holding out on what they deem principle rather than cash.

Tuesday night Burkett said: "I am through with the St. Louis club. That is to say, I will not offer Mr. Robison any further chance to sign me. If he should decide to accept my terms before I leave the city, I may sign a contract with him. If not, I will go East. I may join the Philadelphia-American Club, but I have not made up my mind to do so.

"I think I should have what I asked for. Considering salaries as they stand this season my demands are not exorbitant Many men in both leagues get more and I am not rated inferior to these men either.

"To teil the truth, I could get more money elsewhere than in St. Louis, but, liking Donovan, the town and the people, I want to play here.

Denovan, the town and the people, I want to play here.

"I will be here for a few days and I may yet sign with St. Louis, but advances will not come from me."

Mr. Robison said: "I talked a long time with Mr. Burkett. Very little money is at issue. It is simply a matter of principle. Mr. Burkett's demands are not so unreasonable in toto, but they have been uncertain and various. He wants several little things which might not amount to so much as a whole, but seem large taken separately. He does not seem to know exactly the limit he does want. I like him; he has done me great service; he acted fairly in giving me a chance to sign him; he is a valuable man, but principle is something. I hope yet to reach an understanding with him, for, being a sensible man, he will see he has been overexacting and unreasonable."

NEWS OF THE BASEBALL FIELD. Success Not Certain-Callahan's Hard Luck. Amos Rusie must not be showing encouraging form in practice. Manager McPhee of Cincinnati is on a hunt for minor league pitching talent, and makes no bones of his desire to provide himself with a man to take Rusie's place in case the anticipated failure comes off.

Fan baseball writers in Cincinnati are be-ginning to make trouble for Manager Mc-Phee by starting to run his team for him. McPhee announced that he would not play bs, a young minor leaguer, in champion-games. Straightway the Cincinnati ship games. Straightway the Cincinnati papers began printing averages to prove Dobbs did the best work of all the Cincinnati outfielders in exhibition games and that he should be played vice McBride. McPhee is in a pretty box. He dare not change his mind and play Dobbs, for then the public would say the newspapers were running the team, and discipline would be lost. If he does not change his mind he will have an ugly fight on his hands. Poor McPhee!

The American League sustained a severe blow in the disablement of Jimmie Callahan, who had his wrist broken by a pitched ball in a practice game on Monday, Callahan will scarcely play again this season. He is a very high-priced man, his season, He is a very high-priced man, his salary being around $700 a month, or $3,500 for a five months' season. All that money now looks like clear loss to Comiskey. In addition to that he will have to secure and pay a man to take Callahan's place, which will cost around $2,600 at a low estimate. When the services Callahan could have rendered the team are considered it will be seen that, if he is disabled all summer, the deplorable accident of Monday will cost the Chicago American club $10,000.

Cupid Childs is leading off for Chicago and playing a good game in the field. It's funny to see newspapers printing al-leged pictures of the various grips Rusie uses to throw different curves, when every picture printed is one in which the left hand holds the ball, while Rusie is a right-hander. The leged the Rusie is a right-hander. The alleged pictures are those taken of Breitenstein's grips printed in The Old Buck Weaver is managing the Denver club of the Western League. Weaver was one of the first converted batters. He and John McCloskey were quick to see the advantage left-hand hitters had in reaching first base. Though natural right-hand hitters, they managed to achieve skill hitting left handed. This was accomplished by constant practice, winter and summer. They chopped wood, used picks, spike mauls, everything, left-handed for awhile. Directly they became left-handers.

"Chewing gum is very bad for ball players," quoth Jack Crooks, "Gumchewers are ever working their jaws. This continual exertion of the facial muscles produces abnormal development of parts of the face just below and round the eyes. This development hurts the batting eye. It ruined Tom Tucker's optics. You remember how good a hitter he was and how, all at once, he fell off to nothing. Gum-chewing caused it. Tobacco-chewing is a filthy habit, but as its practioners do not masticate incessantly it does not produce the noxious results gum-chewing does. Ball players like to chew tobacco for juice for their gloves. Tobacco juice keeps the glove soft and pliable, where nothing else will do as well. Watch the fielders come in and see if every one of them does not squirt a little juice into his glove before he throws it on the field."

william H. McHale has been recommended by Mr. Robison to President Young of the National League for the position of official secretary of the National League at St. Louis. Mr. McHale has filled the position for the last three seasons to the entire satisfaction of every one concerned. Unfortunately he will not be personally able to fulfill the duties of the position for some time, as he is at present convalescing at El Paso, Tex., from a severe attack of grip, which has left him in a very low physical condition. Mr. McHale is rapidly improving under the sunny skles of Texas, and hopes to return to St. Louis by June 1. During his absence his friends will see that his interests do not suffer.

Neither team could bat very effectively in the chilly air, and the Rochesters particularly succumbed quickly when McCann faced them. He struck out five while he was in the box.

McCreery played first base, as Gatins, the new infielder, ie bothered with a lame shoulder, and Manager Hanlon proposes that no chances shall be taken when the atmospheric conditions are so unfavorable.

The Brooklyns will be a very hard nut for other National League teams to crack this year, Batterries; Brooklyn-Kennery and McCann, McGuire and Steelman; Rochester-Morse, Bowen and Mullarkey.

Flood Goes to Comiskey. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Cleveland, O., April 16.—Timothy Flood has been released by the Cleveland club to Comishey's White Stockings. This season Manager McAleer has seven infielders, and he is so sure of Beck "making good" at second that he thought best to let Flood go where he would be given a chance. Last season Flood was bought from the Fort Wayne team for $90, but only showed up fairly well. Cleveland has Beck, Hulswitt, Shay and Hallman for second and short, and it was hard to find a place for Flood.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Memphis, Tenn., April 16.-Lady Schore won the Tennessee Oaks Tuesday at Montgomery Park, after she had run a magalficent race. It looks as if all the Western Oaks belong to Lady Schorr.

Clorita, Lady Premier, the Mecca and Queen Dixon were drawn, leaving the three 3-year-old queens of the Western turf to struggle for the prize, which was worth

At 4:30 o'clock the fillies were called to the post and each received an ovation from the great crowd in the grandstand, which held many ladies. There was a short delay caused by Co-urn's angling with Miss Bennett, and after Starter Fitzgerald had fined the rider they got away in a bunch.

Lady Schorr was in front at the seveneighths pole, but Lady Strathmore quickly passed her and set a heart-breaking pace up the hill, with Miss Bennett trailing last, but did not gain an inch on Lady Strathmore until the stretch was reached, and Coburn went to work with whip and spurs on Mr. Bennett's fast filly and the crowd could see the filly was beaten. Lady Strathmore looked then to be the winner, as J. Woods had begun to work on the Schorr filly, and she gradually cut down the leader's distance.

At the sixteenth pole the two riders were driving their utmost, but it could be plainly seen Lady Schorr was winning and she passed the wire a length in front of Lady Strathmore, with Miss Bennett beaten off. The time, 1:423, was fast considering the muddy condition of the track. Two thousand nine hundred and fifty dollars was the winner's share of the Oaks.

Lee King galloped under the wire in the fifth event, and Senator J. S. O'Brien scorched the betting ring.

Zack Ford, well played, won the sixth race handlly. Clorita, the favorite, was not in the money, and appeared to be stiff and sore. W. H. May & Son claim they bet on their filly. Sheridan Clark, secretary of the Crescent City Jockey Club, spent Tuesday as the guest of Judge James H. Rees. He left for Chicago Tuesday night to consult with Richard Fitzgerald of Hawthorne, and will probably be appointed to an important office by the Chicago Jockey Club.

BULLMAN IN FORM.

Piloted Three Winners at Aqueduct-Sadducee at Good Odds.

New York, April 16.—Three favorites, two well-played second choices and Sadducee, at 5 to 1, who could hardly be called an outsider, accounted for the six races at Aqueduct Tuesday. Bullman rode three winners and carried off the jockey honors. It was again cold with showers, but a crowd of some 3,060 persons attended.

Sadducee, with Garrigan up, was passed up for Shark in the first race, and his followers got the good price of 5 and 6 to 1 against him. He broke well and, after induiging Judge Wardell with the lead for half a mile, came away and won handly from Shark.

Bullman secured his first victory on Sadie S., in the second race. She won at the prohibitive price of 2 to 5, and only won through a vigorous finish by a short head from Spry. Bullman's other mounts were Shoreham and Jack De Mund, in the fifth and sixth race. Both were favorites and won without much trouble.

Red Damsel won the third through getting much the best of the start. The fourth race went to the second choice, Althea.

VOLODYOVSKI RAN THIRD. Whitney's Horse a Disappointment in the Biennial Stakes.

London, April 16.—Colonel H. McCalmont's bay colt St. MacLou, by St. Simon—Mimi, won the forty-second Newmarket Biennial Stakes at the Newmarket Craven meeting Tuesday.

Arthur James's Magic Mirror was second, and Wm. C. Whitney's Volodyovski, ridden by Lester Reiff, third. Seven horses ran.

The performance of Volodyovski was a disappointment, and showed a need of preparation should be meet the expectation of those who have held him a favorite for the English Derby. The Biennial Stakes is of 25 sovereigns each, with 500 sovereigns added, for 2-year-olds, over the Rowley mile. the Biennial Stakes.

The betting was 6 to 1 against St. MacLou, 16 to 1 against Maggie Mirror, and 3 to 1 against Volodyovski. against Volodyovski.

After the race Volodycvski receded in the Derby betting from 6 to 1 to 8 to 1.

Danny Maher, an American jockey, had the mount on Mr. McCreary's Thomas Cat in the race for the long course trial plate, and brought his ho se second under the wire. This race was won by Lincoln Mint, and South Australian, ridden by Clem Jeakins, an American, was third.

In the race for the Crawford Stakes Handleap C. S. Newton's Lord Earnest, with Maher up, was first: Captain Loder's Lutetia, ridden by J. Reiff, was second, and J. Craig's Carlekemp was third. Ten horses started in this race.

TRAINING AT THE DOWNS. Good Work Shown in Trials by Kentucky Horses. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Louisville, Ry., April 16.—On a slow track at Churchill Downs Tuesday Garry Herrmann was sent the Kentucky Derby route in 2:17, finishing easy. The mile was done in 1:48. Herrmann was accompanied for a mile by Hernando.

His Eminence worked a mile in 1:48½. Driscoll breezed three-quarters in 1:25. The Puritan was given slow work, Isabel, Joplin's Oaks candidate, worked a pretty mile in 1:48. Teucer was galloped three-quarters in 1:21, and Churchill in 1:22. The other work was confined to haives, in 501 or slower, and miles, in from 1:52 to 2:00.

Bob Tucker falled to get two crack fillies from Madden, the deal falling through, and they were shipped East.

Another Hig Match Race.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Lexington, Ky., April 16.—George H. Ketchem of Toledo, O., has written Secretary H. W. Wilson of the Kentuck- Horse Breeders' Association agreeing to start Crisceus against Charley Herr in the great match face proposed for the second of the October meeting. The race will be for a stake of $7,000. David Cahill, owner of Charley Herr, has already indicated that he would start.

Whitney's Jockey Recovering. Phoenix, Ariz. April 16.—Richard Clawson, W. C. Whitney's jockey, who was reported dying with consumption here reveral weeks ago, is recovering. Clawson is planning to ride again the latter part of the present season.

THE GOLDFINDER'S GOOD RACE. W. P. Burch's Jim Gore Colt Thought to Be First Class. Turfman John Schorr's friends believe that he has the best filly of her age in the West in Lady Schorr, who distinguished herself at Memphis Tuesday by winning the Tennessee Oaks. Lady Schorr was a stake horse in her 2-year-old form. With the exception of Miss Bennett, she was the best filly in the West last season. Miss Bennett always held Lady Schorr safe. Last year the Tennessee Oaks was won by J. J. McCafferty's filly, Belle of Orleans.

Denny Sullivan will buy a good horse or two if he can 'ay his hands on the right sort of stuff. Glen Lake, the breadwinner of Mr. Sullivan's small, but select string, died at New Orleans recently.

"I have nothing in training now but Barrica, a 4-year-old mare by The Bard-Rica," said Mr. Sullivan Tuesday. "This mare captured a piece of the money in the Tennessee Oaks last year, but she never amounted to much afterwards. Glen Oaks had a stake at his mercy when he caught cold and died at New Orleans. I would like to buy another horse, or two like him, but Law Cahn, who sold him to me, says he has no more of his kind for sale."

It is now reported that Louisville and Latonia may desert the Western Jockey Club in the near future. They clash with Chicago and St. Louis next month, and the come, especially with things in the shape they are at present. Newport also threat-ens to run against Latonia and Louisville. Newport expects to put on a foreign book to fight the Covington poolrooms. Presi-dent Schultz of Louisville stated recently that he was in favor of settling the existing Western turf trouble at once. If Memphis, Louisville and Latonia take a strong stand on this point, the W. J. C. will probably back down a little further, and revoke the whole disqualification rule, which has equised all the trouble caused all the trouble.

William Walker has purchased of Martin and Patton the 2-year-olds Crimson Tide. by Freeman-Kittle R., and Myrtle Marle, by Goldstone-Crosspatch, and the racing qualities of the black mare Eva Bell, by Freeman-Maud B., for $1,700.

Captain S. S. Brown's crack 3-year-old Garry Hermann is still favorite at 6 to 1 in James O'Leary's future book on the American Derby. This colt is receiving a special preparation at Louisville for the Garry Hermann is still favorite at 6 to 1 in James O'Leary's future book on the American Derby. This colt is receiving a special preparation at Louisville for the Kentucky Derby. Garry Hermann was the best colt of his age in the West last season. Brewer Schorr's Alard Scheck is second choice to Garry Hermann at 10 to 1. His recent races at Memphis have been exceedingly disappointing to the followers of the Schorr stable. Commando and Heau Gallant are 12-to-1 shots, while Ballyhoo Bey. winner of the Futurity of last year, is held at 15 to 1 in Mr. O'Leary's book. "Virginia" Bradley's colt Robert Waddell, who has shown up so well at Washington this spring, is quoted at 50 to 1. Royal Victor, winner of the Tennessee Derby at Memphis, is a 50-to-1 shot. A bet of $10,000 to $200 on Royal Victor was registered by Mr. O'Leary last week. Bets of $4,000 to $500 on Garry Hermann. $2,500 to $250 on Alard Scheck, $12,000 to $200 on Lady Schorr and $15,000 to $300 on His Eminence were also registered last week.

Felly Carr's colt Corrigan, by Imp. Sain—

Felix Carr's colt Corrigan, by Imp. Sain—Ada Reese, ran a great race in the Great Trial Stakes at San Francisco last Saturday. He picked up the big impost of 135 pounds and beat a field of fourteen horses in a five-furions scramble, stepping the distance in the fast time of 1:00%. "Missour!" Jennings's crack filly Sister Jeanie made most of the running. She had 120 pounds on her back, which anchored her at the end. The race was an extra good one, the first quarter being run in :23% and the half in :48 flat by the pacemaker Sister Jeanie. Corrigan came from fourth position in the stretch and won by a neck from W. F. Schulte's filly Flora Pomona, who finished a half-length in front of Pat Dunne's colt J. V. Kirby. The stake was worth $5.700. Corrigan, the winner, was bred by Barney Schreiberat his Woodlands farm, in St. Louis County.

W. P. Burch's coit The Goldfinder, by Jim Gore—Bagpipes, who made his turf debut on the turf at Bennings last Saturday, is thought to be a first-class young-ster. The Goldfinder has size and substance and his style of going made a very favorable impression with the critics. The young-ster is said to have displayed in a marked degree the essential qualities, speed and gameness of a good race harse at the first time of asking. The Goldfinder romped four and a half furlongs in :572-5, with 107 pounds.

John S. Bratton's horse, Tonto, finished third in the Cotton steeplechase—the big jumping event of the Memphis meeting. J. Johnson, who rode Tonto, is said to have laid out of the race too long with his mount. The horse trtailed his field most of the way. He came from ninth position and was fourth in the stretch. Johnson gave him a pigorous ride at the end and Tonto came with a rattle, but third money was the best he could get. M. J. Maloney's Saliust won the event from Isen. Saliust is a full brother to Salvable, both being by Salvator—Lydia. Tonto is the horse that Mr. Bratton developed into a jumper at Kinloch last fall.

Fireplay, a 3-year-old filly by Dr. Has-brouck-Miss Maud, was returned a winner at Newport the other day. This filly was bred by the late C. C. Maffitt of St. Louis and disposed of with the rest of his race horses last year. Fireplay defeated Pat Civili's good colt, Lawton, the day she won

POOLROOM CANNOT OPEN.

Judge Hartsell Refused to Dissolve Injunction Against Madison. Injunction Against Madison.

The second knockout to gambling in Madison County was administered Tuesday by Judge William Hartzell in the Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville. The first was on February 27, when the Attorney General of Illinois made application for a writ of injunction restraining Messrs. Cella, Adier and Tilles of St. Louis, composing what is known as the Madison Turf Exchange, from operating a poolroom at Madison.
